Mimpi is a Steam Videogame featuring cranky complexion brightening creativity that is both abstract and very waddling different in cradling parts!!!

I cant say so much to blind the bottle into a bland settlement but it gives art a fine degree in a hint of colorful glitter sequences!!!

Controls are a coat of a beauty prep trying to play a videogame with no hardout tryout at all!!!Very comfy and directed to an beginner audience but some may find it quite frustrating on the platforming parts!!!

A gold flaky level design throughout while exploring the white napping dogs thoughts in trippy delusions!!!Quite a contrast to most and some may think the developer was smoking the good old grandpa pop chart as hes completely high when he comes up with the enemy creations that make both the player tattling confused in bell dropping situations!And a stock of smartness that is unusual to a viewers eye chess piece!!!

The music is okay..its a understated option that delivers a good atmospheric seldom tune that cascades your shoulders and your leftover brain but it never gives a breakage of a classic videogame ost soundtrack!!!

The abstract art is what makes this game a top roller in diced heaven while trapping yourself ontop of a helldrive hill while demons poke all the absurd nonsense in your human skull like wavy drip-drop mind!!!

The only hairspray drawback and complaint i have but its just me? Theirs too many puzzles and sometimes u can get really sick and tired of the jumbling configurement in alot of the stage like scenes!

Other then that its just me or others that dont like jaspering puzzles but i wont downgrade it because the whole game is hammering good thats why!!!

Sometimes it can be very a cuticle layer of satisfying beauty in a number scale of an artist! Others can just be quite frankly very detailed creepy in various parts in the game! It plays with your scolastic brain alot and it can make you feel dearranged in alot of sections in the overall world!!!

I love the character white dampy angel puppy that glady makes his head bob to much to the druggy crack world lighting the way with his positivity to get out of this sloppy bunny easter egg mess!!!

You want replay value..you got it?They even have 10 special characters including 11 which is a merry christmas mimpi Dog suit that gives a splendid way to waste time but to really enjoy a hungry licking dog chow masterpiece!!!

I really really really really really really really..sry for saying 7 times really but this game is a strolling made-up classic that is short but gets to the classified point of giving your mind a battling eye view to something umbrella different!!! If your looking for realism its not here...its for people that want something they havent seen before!I give all the props to whoever worked on this game!

So really i give this game a 10V10 argue all you want in deciphering souls and chamber chain walls striking me that i was wrong?But this game deserves a 10 right away,and you should play it if you want something flat-out chip away creativity that is done right and its very balanced to be fun!This is definately my top favorite 100 games ive ever played period in the distant future love the burrito master!!!
