Game is shallow. Spend 30 minutes to learn mechanics then just repeat the same sequence of actions: hire all available heroes keep sending them to provinces. After getting >25 of heroes you don't even need to care about their stats - just press button when those bars get green.. This game is a drug, that's how addictive and enjoyable this game is. If you're looking for a superb quick fix, this game is a must have! Games as straight-forward, simple (but not easy), and simultaneously relaxing as this game are rare. Simply put, you will not want to stop playing this game because its short levels are just plain fun, providing quick gratification. Before you know it, a few hours have gone by.

You control an orb of energy. The objective of each mission is to collect as much energy as quickly as you can, while you are avoiding asteroids and homing missiles flying at you. There are four "power-up" energies you can collect during your missions as they appear. They appear in two situations: randomly appearing within traps, and when asteroids are blown up. The whitish-blue energy increases your movement speed. The green energy makes you temporarily invincible. The red energy gives you mines to blow up asteroids. The yellow energy increases the chances your attacks are multiplied. What's even better is they can be stacked. You can wield all four energies at once, if you can collect them before they expire. Just be careful as you go for the energies, because they're surrounded by traps.

Your "weapons" consist of mines that you can manually "plant", a circular force field of anti-gravity that surrounds you, repelling asteroids, and the ability to temporarily freeze time, which allows you to maneuver through tight spots.

This game is similar to Asteroids, but but with so many more variables and incentives. You don't actually have to destroy the asteroids, but doing so causes the colored energies to appear. You earn stars after completing each mission. How many stars you earn depends on how well and efficient you perform. The more missions you complete, and the more stars you earn, the more you can level up the energies, amplifying their enhancements, as well as increasing their duration. You can then go back and replay previous missions in order to get more stars, which you can then apply toward leveling up your skills even more.

In a nutshell, this is one of the best games I've played, as far as "casual" games go. Sometimes I just want to sit down and play a fun, simple, and relaxing game, and with this game, the developer has mastered that niche.. Serene, peaceful, daunting at times. An old woman, alone, running the farm herself. Her family spread out across cities and worlds...

A lovely little game, looking after livestock, adventuring outside and planting crops. There's no tutorial apart from 'click left to pick up and right to drop'. The first few days I had to figure out what to do myself which was interesting

Would have loved to have seen achievements however still great without. Would have been a nice addition to have the letters read out, i feel we could empathise more with her relatives this way.

Very interesting but sad story and was heart-wrenching towards the end.

I am left with a few questions, perhaps i was not paying as much attention as i thought, but...
Are we supposed to be able to kill the wolves? Even though I shot them, they still killed my goats!
What is the benefit of planting flowers?

I know I needed to find the buried dolls.... but.. why?. Game is good. Couldn't get into it. Over an hour in; no real story, no gameplay, bad/boring environments, and most importantly not a shred of horror.. I bought this game because it seemed like fun and it actually is! The constantly plugged toilet that needs plungin' thanks to your lovely neighbor upstairs mixed with the pipes breaking and needing upgrades are really a fun concept! The leaderboards is a nice addon as well, you can compete with other people and see who is the best plumber! A silly, and fun game!

"Quick" video if anyone want to check it out!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v1AmuUiaGxE>. This was the tender used by BR52 by default, so it is practically a must have.

This version is fully compatible with the version available though the 3rd party web site... and it is cheaper \(and even more when on sale\).

If you are into classic european steamers, get it now, as most BR52 freeware reskins require this tender anyway.
.Great game, reminds me of Dragon's Lair with the art style and humor. Enjoyed the soundtrack and you can beat this game in one sitting. Look forward to more games from this devolper. Unless you want it for cards, or a 1 achivement game, it's completely worthless.

EDIT I would play a game with a deep story about the bear though.. Soul Saber 2: I found this game a good while ago \(outside steam\).

- This game is very similar to Cosmic Break/Cosmic League in terms of Gameplay.

- The game it self is rather.. clunky and feels akward to play \(as of now\) even with a Controller.

- The "Nudity" is probably what the main focus was moved on to, since the actual gameplay resolves around unbalanced shooting/slashing at each other. \(even the grenades are unbalanced\)

- Then there's the feature to unlock characters, you gain winning points on games you win and unlocks characters. It's pretty straight forward, but could've been more to it.

- As of now, I wouldn't reccomend buying it unless you're only here for the nudity.

Worst arkanoid i have ever played. 10 words: this game is the most repetitive grind of all time. Awesome followup to 2016's Job Simulator.

Much like it's predecessor, I expect this one to stay on the top selling charts for years to come. There's tons of great interactivity, variety of things to do with great replayability, and the same charming humor that made Job Simulator so good.

Also, you're definitely getting more bang for your buck here. With Job Simulator, I've done everything there is to do and got 100% of the achievements in 2 hours. With Vacation Simulator, I've only done about half of the activities with 3 hours played, so I'm going to estimate the total time for everything is probably more in the 5-6 hour range. Even after that, I'm sure there's more to discover and fun to be had playing through the game again.

The only thing I would say to watch out for is the play area. It says you need at least 2m x 1.5m to play, but I'm sure you could get away with a bit less room. As long as you have enough room to take one good step from the center of your play area in any direction you should be OK. The gameplay is focused around walking around the playspace much like Job Simulator. There's no artificial locomotion to be had here. Also, I'm pretty sure you need a 360 setup as I don't see any options for smooth or snap turning.

Highly recommended to everyone with a VR headset.. After downloading the demo and then the game today and playing for a few hours, I have to say I like the game so far. Sadly though, the incorrect spelling of things and customer pics which don't mesh with the correct gender in writing is annoying to say the least. Add on top of that Kamala telling you you did it wrong when her suggestion is exactly what you did.

I plan to continue playing since it is fun. Hopefully there will be some patches to fix these childish mistakes. At this time I cannot recommend this game one way or another but since there is no choice but to make a recommendation I will approve for now.... I was originally researching the card game to see if it would be something good for a casual board gaming group I'm in, and then discovered the computer and mobile version. It's certainly casual, and not very serious (some skill, but lots of luck also). I tend to prefer games that emphasize skill more, but this is just fine for me. I have to confess that while the game is certainly quite easy to understand once you've played a bit, I don't think that I'm particularly good at it.

I haven't yet played online, so I can't comment on how well that works. But solo play against the AI works quite well. There's also a campaign mode, to play a series of scenarios (with pre-loaded decks). I'm currently stuck on the third game, which seems impossible to beat (did I say that I don't think I'm particularly good at the game?). A fun game to play with friends while you catch up, the easy ranking system makes it addictive to keep going up and the customizations are super cute!. The GTA everyone has been anticipating
